Illinois Commission on Discrimination and Hate Crimes

Public Comment:

The Illinois Commission on Discrimination and Hate Crimes (CDHC or Commission) welcomes Public Comment during open meetings of the Commission, the Commission's Committees, and other Committee-sponsored meetings. To promote social distancing, the Commission will be meeting electronically, and in-person public comment is temporarily unavailable. Public comments may be provided during the Commission meeting by joining the electronic meeting via computer or telephone. Commission meeting will be conducted using the WebEx Event meeting platform and members of the public may join the meeting by referencing the online or telephone access information provided in the meeting's agenda. At the appropriate points in the meeting, the Chair (or Presiding Officer) will call for public comments. Persons offering public comment should state their name for the record and limit their comment to 5 minutes or less.

Accommodation Requests:

If an accommodation is needed to participate in a Commission/Committee meeting, please contact the IDHR Attorney of the Day at least 48 hours in advance by dialing (312) 814-6262 or email IDHR.Webmail@illinois.gov. If the accommodation request is made by email, the subject line of the email must include the words "REQUEST FOR ACCOMMODATION" and the meeting date.
